

nyos | Code of Conduct

We expect you to behave in a manner fit for a world-class artistic organisation. By becoming a member of NYOS, you are agreeing to the below code of conduct.

- You should respect each other, the course venue buildings and surroundings, and equipment/property belonging to NYOS, Strathallan, or fellow musicians.
- You must comply with the agreed curfew times and should be respectful of other groups sharing the school campus, particularly later in the evening.
- Your wellbeing is of the utmost important - rest, relax, and take breaks when you need them so that you can perform to your full potential.
- The Pastoral Team and NYOS staff are there to ensure that the course runs smoothly, and to support your safety and wellbeing. Please follow all of their instructions.
- You will be provided with a full course schedule at the start of the course. please be on time for all rehearsals, activities, and concert day call times.

- You are not allowed to leave the course venue grounds unless you receive approval and are accompanied by a member of pastoral staff.
- You must not bring alcohol or any illegal substances onto campus.

Failure to comply with the code of conduct may result in verbal warnings, written warnings, and exclusion from the course, depending on the severity.
